

Stellar HR are experienced HR professionals who have spent over 30 years' providing a personal, strategic HR support to businesses of all sizes throughout the Yorkshire & Humber region. Whether your business is new or has been running successfully for some time, there are occasions when you will need support and using an HR Specialist will help by ensuring you follow the correct processes saving you time and money.

Many businesses don't need a full-time HR professional but having access to good HR advice can add so much value and bring real benefits to your business. We can also support your in-house HR team with project work or at times of high volume workload.

Whether you employ 1 or 500 people Employment Law will be an essential consideration for you. We will keep you up to date with what's in the legislation pipeline as well as those Tribunal decisions that could have a potential impact on your business.

Our flexible HR support will be developed for you dependent upon your specific requirements. We will always provide you with a high standard of personal and understandable HR support with flexibility built in at every stage. You decide how much support your business needs and we take it from there.

However much support you choose, the basic service will include:

Service Included and the benefit to you
Essential telephone and email support for basic HR issues - treat us as if we are in the same building*
A personal service – we'll personally get to know you and your business
No long-term contract - review annually!
